It is our objective to print the news in a responsible and truthful manner. Opinions published in Letters to the Editor are those of the quoted author and do not reflect the opinions of either The Corner or its management or any of its advertisers. The Corner will not be liable for errors in advertisements beyond rerunning an advertisement of equal value that may have been due to an error or omission on our part. The Corner reserves the right to refuse advertising based on content and credit history of potential and current advertisers.

SUBMISSION:

We welcome your stories, advertisements and letters. We ask that you submit them to us by the 3rd Wednesday of each month. If you wish to have a picture published and returned, the name and address must be printed on the back of the picture and a SASE must be provided. All letters and stories must be signed with a phone # to verify the author. Stories will be printed based on space availability and content of the story, we reserve the right to not print any submission that does not fit within our guidelines.
